CROSSROADS IN CROSBY: Although the Crossroads Centre and Café has been running very successfully the requirement to pay VAT will make it less financially secure in the future. The churches in our area are being asked to help bolster the funds needed for running the café. Many people use the café on a regular basis and some benefit from the chance of a low budget meal and a chat. We would not like to see this ecumenical initiative fail. Please consider putting £5 in the envelope provided at the back of church and hand it in to the presbytery.

WELCOME-IN SCHEME: As you probably know, Churches Together in Crosby runs a Welcome-in Scheme. We are always in need of volunteers to help with this. If you could help, please send your email address to Terri Whitaker at terripwhitaker@gmail.com. You will then receive monthly updates on properties sold in our area and if there is one near you, you could collect a Welcome-in pack from Crossroads Cafe.

Each year a different group or community arranges the Order of Service and a local Church hosts a Service. This year the prayers have been prepared by the Women of the Cook Islands.

---

IONA 2026: Anyone interested in joining the pilgrimage (27th-31st May 2026) should contact Mgr John on 0151 928 3456 for further details. It promises to be a very interesting and enjoyable trip with a retreat, relaxation and prayer. The cost is still to be finalized and depends on the number of people travelling.
