CAFOD. Sadly it has not proved possible to keep the Cafod shop in St John's Road, Waterloo, open and it will cease trading from 21st December this year. The shop opened in 1993, since when it has realised a total of around £800,000—an average of over £30,000 each of the 25 years of the shop's existence. It is a great achievement and has helped Cafod to care for the needs of thousands of people. Final donations to the Cafod Shop should be made by 30th November, and there is a half-price sale during the final 3 weeks from end of November. This is a chance to make a concerted effort in aid of Cafod at Christmas time. Any offers of help to clear the shop after Christmas will be welcome.

An Advent Service will be arranged by North West Friends of CAFOD in the Cathedral on 12th December. Details on the notice board. See below for details of the Annual Cafod Fun Run.
